“To me, Pewee Valley is a town”.... The distinction.... lies in the community’s atmosphere “a genuine caring for each other” and an appreciation for “preserving the beauty, the trees, and the naturalness of Pewee Valley.”

Quote of Vivien Reinhardt, long time resident and former Mayor of Pewee Valley as published in the Courier-Journal’s Feature Section 2/16/07

In 1929, Annie Fellows Johnston, author of The Little Colonel series of nationally known children’s books from the late 1800’s wrote, “Thirty years ago, wandering down its shady avenues was like stepping between the covers of an old romance novel.”
